County Attorney

J. W. CATHCART.

Endorsed by all the Circuit Judges of the Territory as the ablest prosecutor in the courts, assailed by a nest of nepheline musteloids, John W. Cathcart has the vote of the Republican party as the best man and in addition that of every fair-minded man in the community as a rebuke to the underhanded means sought to defeat him.

John W. Cathcart was born in St. Paul, Minn. He studied law in and practiced in the office of U. S. Senator Cushman K. Davis. In Hawaii he was Deputy Attorney General under E. P. Dele and he has served during the past two years as County Attorney to the credit of the Party.

Clerk

D. KALAUOKALANI, JR.

If every man on the Republican ticket were as strong as Kalaokalani a campaign would be unnecessary. Kalaokalani has proven himself a splendid County officer and his election to that office for the coming term is conceded by all parties. He is one of the young men of whom the people have cause to be proud.

County Auditor

JAS. BICKNELL.

When the Party gets a good man it wants to keep him. That is why Jas. Bicknell was renominated for County Auditor. Bicknell's record speaks for itself and he has practically no opposition.
